ILO – USCIB: Global Estimates on Modern Slavery Briefing

Details:

- Date and time: 14 September 2022 | 14:00-15:15 ET
- Location: Online (Zoom). Register here
- Contact: jarroyo@uscib.org (Jose Arroyo) / greenel@ilo.org (Laura Greene)
- Open to all ILO GBNFL members and USCIB members

Meeting overview

In September 2022, the International Labour Organization (ILO), Walk Free, and International Organization for Migration will release new Global Estimates on Modern Slavery. The estimates provide important insights and impetus to the work of the private sector on eradication of forced labour. To present the latest figures, the ILO and United States Council for International Business (USCIB) are organizing an online briefing for USCIB and ILO Global Business Network on Forced Labour (ILO GBNFL) members. The ILO GBNFL will also present key actions necessary for identifying, preventing, and addressing the ILO’s 11 indicators of forced labour from its report on Eradicating forced labour: What works in practice.

Meeting objectives

- Present the latest Global Estimates on Modern Slavery
- Discuss the impact of the findings for private sector action
- Provide an overview of promising practices to address forced labour
